BAD LANDS, BAD MEN.
EXTRA. ANOTHER FIGHT.
A REAL STIGMA.
WHO CARES FOR NEWS?

—By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1929, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THIS is being written on "the Chief of the Santa Fe," one of many fast trains that travel on the different transcontinental roads, from the front door of the United States on the Pacific to the back door on the Atlantic.

You see in a 3,000-mile stretch of American territory all sorts of lands, plains, mountains and people. At this moment the train rolls through the high hills of Arizona, covered with magnificent pine trees, snow on the hills, the marvelous blue sky which, according to F. G. Bonilla of the Denver Post, is limited absolutely to Colorado, and cut off all around the Colorado border like a pie crust around a pie. It will annoy Bonilla but Arizona has that sky also.

You see on this trip what early travelers and Indians called "the bad lands." Alkali that poisons men and animals rises to the surface and lies in white patches. There is no vegetation for man or his beast. Lizards, jackrabbits and cactuses own the territory.

Later in Chicago, New York and other big cities you will pass through other "bad lands."

The "bad lands" now become the bad men.

Crime, dissipation, ignorance and desperation are written on their faces, as the alkali poison lies on the surface of the bad lands.

But irrigation and cultivation changes the bad lands to lands of great fertility, magnificent crops, irrigation bleaches out the alkali, and the rich, deep fertile soil yields wealth and happiness.

Eventually in cities, education, knowledge, kindness, opportunity will change the bad men to good men, not in one generation perhaps, but easily in two or three.

No man really wants to be bad. There is no man that has no good within him.

Man is a curious animal, more than a million years away from a real civilization, and strange trifles interest him.

You drive to the Los Angeles railroad station a little before 10 at night and the newsboy, good night of human nature, holding his early morning paper, calls out news that he feels sure will interest you deeply.

It has nothing to do with the naval conference, the gigantic Pacific on your right, the stars over your head or the government at Washington to the east.

The boy calls out, "Extry, John Gilbert will fight Tully again."

John Gilbert, you should know, is a good looking movie picture actor. Mr. Tully writes for a living and Mr. Gilbert disliked something that Mr. Tully wrote, so that Mr. Gilbert, whose moving picture training makes him a hero under all circumstances, rushed at Mr. Tully and was knocked flat on his back. Mr. Tully has developed roughness.

Still a hero undismayed, Mr. Gilbert let the world know that when he meets Mr. Tully again there will be another terrific battle, and the newsboy cries the challenge into the night.

If the newspaper had announced on the front page, "The Circle has been squared" or "Einstein Remains and Apologizes to Newton" or "All the Lost Poems of Sappho Have Been Found," the newsboy would still have shouted through the night air, "Gilbert will fight Tully again."

Five states of the south, highest in illiteracy, are conducting educational campaigns to reduce "the stigma."

Census takers list illiterates: Iowa has only 1.1 per cent of illiterates, lowest in the nation. Nebraska came first until 1920, and is striving to regain the championship. However, persuading or forcing hard-working people to study at night when they are tired out, and learn about their ABC's to remove the illiteracy stigma is not doing much.

To be able to read and write, when you lack leisure to do either, and have no access to books worth while is no help.

As well teach a man 5,000 miles from Egypt to read hieroglyphics on Egyptian monuments.

Hard, underpaid labor and lack of work are a stigma worse than illiteracy.

In this part of the world the news day by day seems not important, you hardly miss it. Looking out of the car windows, toward the north, over rolling hills and plains, or toward the south, where Byrd is worrying his way home, what they are doing back of you on the Pacific coast, or ahead of you in Chicago, Boston, New York seems unimportant.

Italy Looks Toward Two

LONDON, Feb. 14.—France's program for disarmament, as set forth in minute detail by Premier Andre Tardieu, today definitely blocked progress of the five-power naval conference here.

While France's submarine and eight-inch gun cruiser figures in particular are too high for Great Britain to accept without strenuous opposition, Premier Tardieu's alternative of mutual security pact has aided in placing a formidable stumbling block in the path of the parity.

In the course of a lengthy meeting at St. James's palace today, M. Tardieu again stressed France's willingness to reduce her tonnage figures provided the powers formulated such a treaty. The meeting was attended by Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson, First Lord of the Admiralty P. V. Alexander, Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas.

Asks For Security
While Premier Tardieu stressed a pact of "mutual guarantee and security" among the naval powers, it is believed he would accept a less definite treaty modeled after the lines of the pacific pact of the Washington conference on condition that the United States was willing to participate.

While the United States is definitely opposed to participation in such a thoroughly European agreement, if it comes to a showdown and success or failure of the conference hinges upon this pact, it is certain the American delegates would explore the possibility of participation.

Such exploration would include the sounding out of senatorial opinion on the possibility of congressional ratification.

It is known that the American delegates deplore France's pointed non-inclusion of Italy in M. Tardieu's reference to the nations with which war was "unthinkable." In his disarmament memorandum, (Continued on Page 4)

Pays for Theft of Melon 15 Years Ago

Fifteen years ago, Joseph Bova, veteran Salem fruit dealer, missed a watermelon from a row which he had placed on display in front of his store located in the heart of the city's business district.

The loss was marked down in the profit and loss column and the matter forgotten. But Wednesday afternoon it was again brought to his attention.

Bova, since retired from business, was accosted on East State st. by a stranger who gave him 50 cents.

"This is for a watermelon which I stole from your store 15 years ago. It's been on my conscience all these years," Page Diogenes and his lantern.

About 200 northeastern Ohio farmers attended the closing session of the annual potato growers conference at the Memorial building here Thursday afternoon.

M. K. Baker of the United States department of agriculture, was the principal speaker during the afternoon, discussing "Potato Grades and Their Application."

C. W. Wald, marketing specialist of the Ohio State department of agriculture spoke on "Selling to Retailers and Consumers" while C. W. Hauck, Ohio State university marketing specialist, spoke on "A New Venture in Potato Marketing in Ohio."

Interesting open forum discussions were held by farmers with speakers after each speech. The conference was in session all day and will become an annual affair with potato-growers in this section of the state.

Canfield Man Chairman
J. C. Hedge of Canfield, Mahoning county extension agent, was chairman of the conference introducing speakers, E. B. Tussing, labor specialist at Ohio State university, and Hauck spoke in morning sessions.

Tussing spoke on "Relation of Production to Marketing" while Hauck discussed "Influence of Chain Stores."

Displays of potatoes were exhibited by farmers attending the affair. Representatives were present from Mahoning, Stark, Carroll and Columbiana counties.

Man Will Be Sent To Massillon
State Hospital For Insane;
In Serious Condition

WARREN, O., Feb. 14.—Adj. Judge S. W. Jones, Richmond Stewart, Warren merchant, who has been on a "hunger strike" for 30 days in protest to a prison sentence for molesting a woman, was expected to be committed to the Massillon state hospital today.

Emaciated and considerably weakened in strength, Stewart was examined by physicians in city hospital yesterday and found to be in a serious condition. For 30 days the man has refused to touch food of any kind. His sole means of subsistence has been water.

The rug dealer began his "hunger strike" following his incarceration in city jail when he refused to pay a fine of $200 and costs for molesting a woman. During his fast, he has lost more than 25 pounds in weight.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Feb. 14.—Emmett Denmore, 30, of East Liverpool, and Louie Keeton, 24, of Greenup, Ky., are in Columbiana county jail in Lisbon today, awaiting arraignment before the next grand jury session on charges of holding up and robbing an East Liverpool gasoline filling station and an East Palestine restaurant following their arrest by police here last night.

The two men were arrested by Police Chief Conley and Capt. Lister at the home of John Denmore, the alleged bandit's father after the house had been under police surveillance for several days. They are alleged to have held up and robbed the B & W filling station here and the Busy Bee restaurant in East Palestine early last Monday morning.

Keeton is reported to have signed a written confession implicating himself, Denmore and a third man, whom he refused to name shortly after being placed under arrest.

Pulls Gun on Chief
Conley walked to a rear door of the Denmore home where he was met by Keeton who halted him by showing a revolver into his stomach, ordering him away from the door. The alleged bandit then suddenly slammed the door and escaped to an automobile which was parked near the house. He was captured by Lister before he was able to start the machine and make good his escape.

Denmore was found hiding behind a trunk in an upstairs bedroom but the third man escaped while Lister and Conley were chasing Keeton.

The men were taken to Liverpool police headquarters where police say they admitted theft of an automobile in Portsmouth on Feb. 2. They were given preliminary arraignment before Judge Harry Brekaw who set bond of each at $5,000.

They were taken to Lisbon this morning.

NOCERO GIVEN HEAVY FINES

Total of $500 Imposed In Liquor Charges By
Salem Mayor

Entering pleas of guilty to two charges of violating city liquor ordinances, Joe Nocero of Salem, was fined a total of $500 and costs by Mayor John M. Davidson today.

Nocero was fined $300 and costs on a charge of transporting intoxicating liquors and $200 for possession of intoxicating liquors. He made part payment on the fines and made arrangements for payment of the remainder this week.

Nocero was arrested by Chief of Police T. W. Thompson and Patrolman Ralph Stoffer two weeks ago while he was driving his automobile on South Broadway. His machine was forced from the street into the curb after a chase by the officers following which he attempted to escape.

He was captured by Stoffer while Thompson searched the car and reported confiscation of a quantity of whiskey.

Salem Resident Delegate To National Meeting In South

R. R. Miller Acting For Purchasing Group of This State

R. R. Miller of Salem, vice-president of the Eastern Ohio Association of Purchasing Agents, is attending the executive meeting of the national purchasing agents association at New Orleans today as delegate from the district organization.

The Eastern Ohio association has arranged a series of special commodity meetings whereby members gather and discuss general business conditions, the future outlook, sources of supply for raw materials and the best methods of obtaining prosperity. The next meeting of this nature to be held by the district group will be held at Canton on Wednesday, February 19.

Salem is well represented in the association having as members the following men, representatives of local industrial plants:

James H. Wilson, Salem Tool company; R. M. Kent, Electric Furnace company; A. R. Silver, Quaker City foundry; G. R. Gibson, Mullins Manufacturing corporation; D. T. McNab, National Sanitary company and R. R. Miller, of the Denning company.

LONG KEY, Fla., Feb. 14.—President Hoover elected on this, his next-to-final day in Florida to make his longest excursion away from the Long Key fishing base, and early this morning the house boat "Sauter" weighed anchor and headed toward Lumbro light about 22 miles south of here.

On the two hours trip down, the executive had an opportunity to digest the French naval demand, made public from the London conference and relayed to Long Key last night. Although no comment was forthcoming from the presidential yacht, his aides indicated that the proposals were regarded as exorbitant.

There was a feeling here, that France, in asking for more than 700,000 tons of fighting craft, had thrown a monkey wrench into the machinery that will set back the date of ultimate conclusion of the negotiations.

Both streets will be cleaned as soon as weather permits, Reich stated.

HUGHES FREE TO TAKE SEAT WITH COURT JUSTICES

Whisper Opposition Cause
Was Veiled Attack
On Rulings

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—With Charles Evans Hughes free to assume his duties as chief justice of the United States, the senate today pondered the effect of its four-day battle over his confirmation on the political and economic welfare of the country.

The almost unanimous opinion, expressed alike by friends and foes of Hughes, was that the long debate in the senate would result in a liberalization of the supreme court's recent attitude on outstanding economic issues. It was frankly conceded in cloakrooms that the fight against Hughes actually screened a protest against the court's recent decisions on questions involving vested interests and corporation "property rights."

The senate felt it had demonstrated to the court that its findings in the recent O'Fallon railroad valuation case and in recent public utility regulation suits were far from popular or in keeping with public opinion. The court in several opinions indicated it was following popular will—a conclusion that must now be changed.

The administration forces were satisfied with their victory, because Hughes was confirmed by a two-to-one vote, 52 to 26.

EMPLOYMENT TO SHOW INCREASE

Normal Industry Soon Is Prediction of U. S.
Authorities

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Admitting there was a great volume of unemployment apparent during the first half of January, the United States employment service, department of labor, today predicted the country would be on a normal employment basis within 60 to 90 days.

All reports indicate that an upward swing in employment is in motion, the department's report said.

The outlook for iron and steel, is unusually encouraging, large orders having been placed for all classes of such products and many furnished workers have been called back. The same is true in the automobile and allied industries.

While the coal industry is still suffering from considerable unemployment, a noticeable improvement was recorded during the latter part of January. Much unemployment has been caused by severe weather conditions, which curtailed building operations and municipal improvements.

Road improvement on a scale larger than in any recent years will absorb much of the unemployment, the survey stated.

BULLETIN

WOOSTER, O., Feb. 14.—Charges of child-stealing, in connection with the mysterious disappearance of Melvin Horst, 4, from Orrville on the night of December 27, 1928, will be placed against Charles Hanna and Earl Conrad before nightfall, it was announced here today by Prosecutor Marion Graven.

The prosecutor pointed out that it is impossible to place a charge of murder against anyone until the dead body of a murdered person can be produced.

Prosecutor Graven also stated that a charge of delinquency would be placed against Junior Hanna, Charles Hanna's 10-year-old son.

WOOSTER, O., Feb. 14.—Each alleging that the other murdered 4-year old Melvin Horst in a garage at Orrville on the night of Dec. 27, 1928, Earl Conrad, 42, railroad and alleged bootlegger, and Charles Hanna, father of Junior Hanna, were restrained from an actual fist-fight in an office in the Wayne county court house here today.

Conrad, who had refused to make any statement whatever in the investigation regarding the boy's murder, until this morning, declared Hanna killed the boy in a garage where Conrad stored his automobile.

Hanna, on the other hand, stuck to his former statement that Conrad beat Melvin to death. Each said he was a witness to the murder when the other committed it.

The statement from Conrad came after a brain-racking questioning session, which was resumed by Prosecutor Marion Graven at 5 o'clock this morning.

Hanna, in his previous declaration that Conrad had murdered the boy, denied any knowledge of where the boy's dead body had been taken. He said that after Conrad murdered Melvin, he left the garage and went home, because "he was shaky." He admitted that he and Conrad had gone to the garage to have "a few drinks of liquor."

JAIL WRECKED BY STUDENTS

Albion College Men Take Drastic Action To
Free Others

ALBION, MICH., Feb. 14.—A hundred Albion college students today tore down the front of the city jail with pickaxes to release 13 fellow students held by police after a riot at a theater.

Unable to cope with the mob, police called for aid. State police from Jackson and Hillsdale and officers from Marshall were called. They used their tear gas bombs without effect. The riot finally was quelled when John Seaton, president of the Methodist college, pleaded with the students.

The 13 students who escaped were to be arraigned today on charges of breaking jail. Fifty others were to be taken to court on disorderly conduct charges.

The rioting began after the Albion basketball team administered a surprise defeat to the team from Alma college.

The students rushed toward the Bohn theater in the hopes of gaining free admission. They were refused admission, but 750 managed to force their way in.

The doors of the theater were locked and 13, believed to be leaders, were taken to jail.

Enraged by the act of the officers, the students made their way to the prison and released their companions.

MONEY AND MERIT

The discussion attendant upon the confirmation of Charles Evan Hughes as Chief Justice of the United States constructs a new precedent which may be brought to bear in all future cases of its kind. It is the second time in the history of the United States that there has been delay in the procedure of confirmation, and the first time that objections have been made on the reasons brought to bear in the case of Judge Hughes.

Most interesting of all in the charges brought by Senators George W. Norris and William E. Borah is the revelation of their attitude toward the relative dignity of the presidency and the chief justiceship. Senator Norris says:

Mr. Hughes resigned from the supreme court to become a candidate for president of the United States. He left the high judicial tribunal to engage in the arena of partisan political debate, and after his ambitions in the political field have failed of realization he is not only reappointed to the supreme court but he is promoted to the position of chief justice . . . a precedent which tends to lower the standard of the supreme court tribunal—a precedent which in the future may result in the weakening of that great court and the lowering of its standards down to the level of the political machine.

The other reason advanced, that of Judge Hughes' association with men of great wealth and his services to powerful money interests, is secondary in importance. It is perennially controversial, but on the face of the matter it is difficult to see the wisdom of contending that a man should be disqualified merely because he has been retained by powerful interests. That, in itself, is one of the best evidences of his qualification.

In addition to the broad and easy implication that the means to the presidency justifies the end of being president, Senator Norris detects a vast conspiracy to place the important appointive offices of the government in the hands of a powerful few who hold box seats in the inner sanctum. The entire procedure, in fact, is nothing if not excellent material for the suspicion of those astute senators who assume the burden of preserving only the "best traditions." "Poor but honest" becomes in their hands a vindictive watchword to whose use no eminent citizen is entitled. All others must enter by the back gate and are constantly expected to show credentials revealing a condition of poverty maintained in contradiction of the success which has made them eligible to hold a responsible office.

An Illinois hunter had one of his thumbs dislocated by the kick of a rabbit when he attempted to grab it. That bunny must have been a descendant of the man-killing rabbits the Washington Post used to tell about in "the good old days" when entertaining tales were considered as important as news.

The parol of Dr. Frederick Cook has been recommended to Attorney General Mitchell. It should be comparatively safe procedure to get the doctor loose now. Both the spools have been pretty well discovered.

Walter Chrysler says: "We are prosperous because we ride in automobiles." What Walter probably means is "we are prosperous because you ride in automobiles."

What Others Say

TREES BY THE ROADS
Pluck a signboard and plant a tree is the highway beautifying principle in Missouri. The attempt to make the road routes more attractive is an adjunct to the extensive highway building program in that state. A landscape architect has been hired. His job is to plant trees and shrubs to mark points where commercialism has encroached. The state will try to preserve the untouched places of rural beauty.

The Wilderness road through the Ozarks has been completed and the beauty adjacent to the paved way will be protected. Scars inflicted in the rush of progress will be removed. Missouri has recently completed 5,000 miles of highways and half as much more is planned for the next few years. Tourists need no longer fear the Missouri mud. In place of it the state gives motorists easy traveling with beautiful natural views thrown in for good measure.

Every state should set itself seriously to making roads more beautiful after the important job of building a hard surface has been completed.—Toledo Blade.

SAVING LEE'S BIRTHPLACE

The project to purchase Stratford, birthplace of Robert E. Lee, should have the hearty support of the North, as well as of Virginia and the South. When the states were reunited the great Lee ceased to be only a knight of the confederacy. The South gave him to all Americans.

The purchase price of Stratford, which was Lee's birthplace and that of his immediate ancestors, is $240,000. Of this amount $20,000 already has been paid. Virginians are raising $100,000 and other southern states are contributing to the total. A substantial payment—the whole amount, it is hoped—will be made on Lee's birthday.

It would be a splendid gesture of friendship and of regard for the South's beloved man and warrior. If many Cincinnatians, many people of Ohio, should contribute modestly toward making Lee's birthplace a national shrine—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Healthiest!

"My little daughter is just about the healthiest girl I know," says Mrs. R. Richards, 1439 Savannah Ave., Cleveland. "And I want to give credit where it is due. Rebecca was afflicted several years ago and I gave her California Fig Syrup. It helped her so wonderfully that I have used it ever since for all her upsets or colds. It has kept her strong, energetic, and well."

Children suffer when bowels aren't regular. Breath becomes foul, tongue coated, eyes dull. When these symptoms are neglected, biliousness, feverishness, lack of appetite invariably follow.

The first dose of California Fig Syrup relieves these symptoms and activates sluggish bowels. Successive doses help tone and strengthen weak bowels, improve appetite, encourage digestion and assimilation. Try it with a bilious, headachy, constipated child and see how it helps!

The pure vegetable product, endorsed by doctors for 50 years, always bears the name California. So look for it when buying.

NEURITIS PAINS

Neuritis is a disease in which a single nerve, or many nerves, or group of nerves, may be inflamed. In the first case it is called "simple neuritis," and in the second, "multiple neuritis."

There is a steady ache, or there may be a succession of stabbing or darting pains. It may be so bad that it is unbearable and the pain has to be relieved by drugs.

Weather changes may increase the pain. Excitement and acute indigestion intensify the condition and increase the pain. There may be much depression and extreme nervousness because of the disturbance in the nerve system.

There are many contributing causes for neuritis, among which are infected teeth, tonsils, sinuses, gall bladder, and infections of other parts. The poisons are carried in the blood stream to all parts of the system.

There is no doubt that the depleted air we commonly breathe indoors is a common cause for physical ailments. So, too, are the poisons from an unclean condition of the large intestine. This latter condition is probably one of the most common causes for the presence of toxins or poisons in the body.

The large intestine was meant to be an outlet for the elimination of waste from the body as soon as the digestive process was ended. Now it is more of a storehouse for the body wastes, which remain in the colon for hours and even many days. The resulting putrefied mass generates poisons which contaminate the blood stream.

Rest is a very important factor in the treatment. Moist and dry heat may be applied to the affected parts to relieve pain. Constipation should be relieved and the dietation regulated at all times. Nourishing food and exercise should bring good results in this painful case.

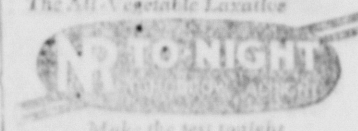

Applying capsaicin vaseline over the painful nerve and covering the part with a hot, wet towel usually stops the aching for a while. Great comfort may be had, also, by wrapping the part in cotton and snugly bandaging it.

The cause must be located by your doctor and, when found, it should be removed.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of Feb. 14, 1910.)

Thirty friends of Will Sharpnack surprised him at his home on East Seventh at Saturday evening in honor of his 25th birthday anniversary. He was presented a beautiful watch fob.

Mary and Ruth Dunlap, of East Fourth st., entertained 12 guests at a Valentine party Saturday afternoon.

Miss Rebecca Kirlian, Lincoln ave., left Monday for Wabash, Ind., where she will visit relatives for two weeks.

Valentine day was very generally celebrated in Salem this year. The sale of over 3,000 one-cent postage stamps on Sunday and Monday will give some idea of the number of Valentines entrusted to Uncle Sam's care.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Thompson will leave Tuesday for Deland, Fla., where they will be guests of Dr. J. M. Fawcett until April 1.

More honors are coming to George W. Armstrong, of Lisbon, talented song writer. He is the author of a number of state songs which are becoming popular.

Owing to the resignation of Miss Retta Detweiler as toll clerk at the Columbiana County Telephone office, several changes have been named. Miss Pearl Rutz on Monday assumed her duties as toll clerk. Her position as chief operator is being filled by Miss Emma Derrin.

Salem leads in the contest between the adult Bible classes of the Christian churches in Salem and East Liverpool. The contest closes March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Carr returned Saturday evening from their honeymoon trip. They will make their home on Brooklyn ave. Announcement of the marriage of Miss Retta Detweiler, of this city, and George E. Henry, of Sebring, came as a surprise to the bride's friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stamp and son Wade left for Los Angeles, Calif., Monday. They expect to locate in the west.

TWO days ago this console was just a radiator . . . tall, unsightly and useless during the warm months. Now it is one of the features of an attractive home all year 'round. A Mullins Enclosure is the reason.

Are your radiators part of your furniture? If not, they can be . . . easily . . . economically . . . beautifully. Mullins Enclosures answer every requirement of beauty and utility. They are made and finished like the finest cabinetwork in steel, with superb wood graining. They come complete with humidifying pan, so important for your family's health in winter. And they protect your walls, draperies and curtains from "heat smudge" caused by uncovered radiators.

May we measure your radiators and submit an estimate? No obligation, of course. Just phone us.

SENTENCES GIVEN TO CONSPIRATORS

Beer Ring Convictions Obtained In Ohio Federal Court
Others To Follow

CLEVELAND, Feb. 14.—Five lesser defendants in the case of the so-called Ohio-Pennsylvania beer ring conspiracy through which it is alleged millions of gallons of contraband "booze" was poured into Ohio in 1924 and 1925, were sentenced here today by Federal Judge Samuel H. West.

Three of the men were convicted as truck drivers for the beer ring. They are Joseph Taimacci and Dominick Delemba, who were sentenced 160 days each in the county jail, and Nathan Morford, who was sentenced to one hour in the custody of the marshal.

Emil Fisher, former yard employee for Joseph Karp, deceased president of the K. & L. Iron & Metal Co., which was one of the alleged distribution terminals in the beer traffic, was also given one hour in the custody of the marshal.

The charge against Jacob Israel, former clerk for Karp, was put aside. He will be used as a government witness against the remaining members of the beer ring, it was said.

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, February 15

A particularly lively and stirring day is forecast from astral activities. New projects and fresh undertakings are imminent, with the disposition aggressive and ambitious. But reckless use of funds and impetuosity should be shunned.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a very lively and ambitious year with new undertakings and fresh contracts thriving, providing there be no rash use of money or reckless adventures. A child born on this day should be clever, aggressive and ambitious. It should be very successful if it will be prudent and thrifty with moneys.

GUN BATTLE IN DETROIT TAKES LIVES OF THREE

Two Officers, Bandit On Casualty List After Holdup Attempt

OTHER WOUNDED BY ROBBERS' BULLETS

Alarm Starts Battle When Special Police Come To Answer Call

Detroit, Feb. 14.—Three persons, two of them special policemen and one a bandit, are dead today after a bitterly-fought gun battle during the attempted holdup at the main branch of the Western Union office late last night. Two other bandits were wounded in the melee.

Police identified the bandits as the same gang which robbed the same Western Union office in a sensational holdup last week. Three other participants are still at large.

The dead: Jesse Catlin, 38, a special policeman, was shot in the abdomen. John Scott, 46, another special policeman, was shot in the chest and abdomen. Both died in receiving hospital as did an unidentified bandit about 28.

The wounded: Patrolman Joseph H. Raab, 26, was in receiving hospital with two bullet wounds in groin. Not serious.

One customer and nine employees were threatened by the bandit gang before the shooting. Arthur Neron, special policeman, who opened fire on the thugs, was credited with saving the life of Hugh M. Griffin, night superintendent of the Western Union.

Officer Saves Life

One of the robbers shouted: "I'll get you for turning in that alarm." He had leveled his pistol at Griffin's head and was just about to fire when Neron entered and began shooting.

The holdup was staged just like the one last week, but the plans were awry this time. Two of the bandits entered the revolving door on the corner while one entered through the messenger's door in the rear of the counter. One of the pair in front of the counter stood guard, threatening the employees while the other leaped over the counter and scooped up $300 from the cash drawer.

Ash Blues, a money order clerk in the rear of the office, was able to turn in the alarm just as the thugs entered. It rang in the office of the American Still Alarm company, in the Western Union building and officers were sent down the stairs on the run.

The thug behind the counter sensed that an alarm had been turned in. He wheeled on his way out and started for Griffin, cursing and leveling his gun. Just then Neron, the first policeman to get down the stairs, entered another door into the rear of the office from the building lobby and opened fire on the man aiming to shoot Griffin.

Fires at Neron

Instead of shooting at Griffin, the bandit turned his gun on Neron and fired four shots. One hit the ceiling and three lodged in the wall, a few inches from Neron's head. The policeman emptied his gun. Meanwhile the bandit in the front of the office, and the one standing by the side door, sprinted outside, closely followed by the thug who did the shooting.

The man who had entered the messenger door, and run out the same, reached the street just as Catlin and Scott ran out of the building lobby. The two officers opened fire and so did the bandits. All three fell in their tracks.

The other two thugs started for a coupe, parked across the street and dashed towards the river. When they heard the shooting between their companion and the officers, they turned in the opposite direction.

They stopped and ran into the street brandishing their guns, and stopped a passerby driving his automobile.

They forced him from the car and leaped in. They attempted to turn around in the street. Patrolman Raab, who had heard the shooting while walking his beat, came sprinting up just at that time.

Police say they believe the dead bandit had committed suicide when he saw escape was impossible. The bullet wound in the dead thug's head, upon casual examination, appeared to be self-inflicted, police say.

Senate Fight Looms Over His Appointment

Hugh M. Tate, of Knoxville, Tenn., is believed to be fairly certain of appointment to the highly important Interstate Commerce Commission, despite the Senate fight that appears inevitable. Democratic Senators, headed by Senator Black of Alabama, stand ready to oppose any Republican nomination on the grounds that the successor to a Democrat on the commission should be a Democrat.

Henpecked Hubbies Find Difficulty In Organizing Society

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Although the Liverpool magistrates granted the "Henpecked Hubbies" an extension of drink hours until 11 p. m. for their inaugural meeting, the meeting proved to be a "flop."

Only 40 of the 400 members made an appearance, the wives of more than 300 members forbidding their erring swains to attend.

Nevertheless, William McElroy, the chairman, opened the meeting with a firm and determined air.

"You must elect me president," he said. "If you do not I dare not go home. My wife said, 'If you are going to be in this silly secret society you must either get yourself made head man or you need not come home.'"

The henpecked "brothers" immediately elected McElroy president among cheers and to the singing of the union's anthem. "We'll show the women what we can do."

The meeting then discussed ways and means to conciliate wives who object to their husbands' membership of the union and it was proposed to give the militant wives outings next summer.

To become a member of the Henpecked Hubbies' Union, husbands must prove they are henpecked. That is the union's one and only rigid rule.

DRY AMENDMENT ATTACK BY WET BLOC CONTINUES

Promise Witnesses For Hearings Next Week To Carry Weight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Confident they are making progress in their educational campaign, congressional wet forces today promised to wage a relentless battle against prohibition to the final day of this session.

Although the present congressional force over the dry law was started by a dry when Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, charged a breakdown in enforcement, the wets are now organized to finish the campaign.

Dry leaders for the most part have declined to follow Borah and are resting secure in their legislative majority and a belief that the country as a whole still is strongly back of the eighteenth amendment.

The attention of both factions was focused today upon the resumption of the wet bill hearings before the house judiciary committee next week, and action of the senate judiciary committee on the resolution of Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana for an investigation of prohibition enforcement. The Wheeler resolution may be taken up Monday.

Representative Lathrop (D) of Maryland, chief of the house "wet bloc," announced he was preparing a formidable list of witnesses for the next wet hearings.

Among them will be P. S. Dupont, Wilmington, Del., industrialist; Dr. Samuel H. Church of Pittsburgh, of the Carnegie institute; Robert Cassat, Philadelphia banker, and Captain W. H. Stayton of Baltimore.

BULLETS FLY IN CHICAGO BATTLE

Four Shot in War Against Gangland; Citizens Join Activity

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Two bandits slain outright and two more near death of bullet wounds was the toll today in Chicago's war on organized crime as scores of citizens joined with police in the campaign against crime and violence.

A tradesman shot and killed a bandit believed to be Manfred Blunt of El Paso, Tex., when he and an accomplice attempted to raid a sales agency last night. The second bandit escaped though wounded.

Police killed an unidentified Negro in a gun battle following a taxicab holdup.

A posse of police, firemen and citizens trapped two burglars who broke into a dwelling. One of the men was injured and his accomplice was captured.

CHICAGO FINDS PAYROLL FUNDS

City Employees To Receive Back Salaries; Offers Made for More

Chicago, Feb. 14.—The gloom of 20,000 city employees who have gone payless for nearly two months turned to joy today with the announcement that half of their long overdue salaries will be paid Monday in bona fide and cashable checks.

Money with which to meet the city's unpaid payroll will be borrowed partly from the city's corporate fund and partly from the vehicle tax fund. It was announced by Charles S. Peterson, city treasurer, and George K. Schmidt, city comptroller, authors of the relief move.

News of this first cash relief spread through the city hall. It came when the morale of employees was at a low ebb and rumors of a walkout were heard from many sources. Hundreds of city employees' families are facing eviction from their homes for non-payment of rent.

Another important step toward emergency cash relief came after a conference between Herbert C. Heller, New York banker, and city officials in which Heller indicated he would return here in a few days with a written offer to buy $48,000,000 worth of the city's tax warrants.

Heller announced that unless Chicago wipes out a $13,000,000 deficit the syndicate he represents will not go through with the proposed deal.

NAVAL PARITY

Tardieu declared that combat with the United States or Great Britain was out of the question.

Refers To Italy

He avoided a similar reference to Italy, however, and it is felt this omission will seriously increase the Franco-Italian friction already existing.

The Italian delegates are sitting tight and for the present have no intention of issuing a memorandum insisting upon parity with the monumental French figures announced yesterday.

They are confident the British and American delegates will be able to whittle down the French demands. The Italians will put forth a strong request for tonnage allotments equal to those of her Mediterranean neighbor.

France's desire for a security pact are based on her anxiety that the Mediterranean sea route be kept open in order to maintain communication with her African colonies, and bring home her colonial troops in case of emergency. There has been no previous indication that she wished to include the United States in this treaty, which would be a pact of mutual guarantee and non-aggression.

M. Tardieu's attitude is interpreted here as revealing France's outspoken fears of Italian aggression. French spokesmen have declared on previous occasions they do not consider the Kellogg pact a sufficient guarantee because it lacks the means of punishing aggressors.

Following the lengthy meeting between the chief delegates, the conference was adjourned until Tuesday to permit the delegates to enjoy the week-end.

Europe's Romantic Wedding

The story of the poor working boy who wins the hand of the beautiful heiress is not limited to any special nation or period. The former Marie Harjes, daughter of the late Col. H. H. Harjes, is shown with her husband, R. W. Curtis, after their marriage in Paris. The bride is well known in American and English society circles. Her father was the founder of the famous firm of bankers, "Morgan, Harjes Company." The groom worked in the Paris office of the well-known banking institution.

Riots Flare Again In Brazilian Areas

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 14.—Two men were killed and 13 wounded, some of them seriously, when a gang of radicals descended upon a conservative political meeting in the town of Lincoln, near here, today.

The head were two farm laborers who were struck by flying bullets. Scores of shots were fired. Among the wounded are Manuel Fresco and Uberto Vignati, members of the national chamber of deputies.

vice of veteran surfmen as to where they were running the biggest before picking this vicinity. Mrs. Hoover tied him at sail fishing yesterday when she hooked her first one of the trip, and all of his guests have caught sailfish weighing more than the one he got on his first day out.

Mrs. Hoover's sail fish incidentally furnished the party with dinner last night. Later in the evening, one of the newspaper men, noticing the partially carved fish lying on the pier and not knowing it was edible or belonged to the first lady, nonchalantly hacked himself off another five pound steak and used it for bait in an effort to catch a shark from the pier-end.

Actress Will Quit Comedy for Tragedy

LONDON, Feb. 14 — Tallulah Bankhead, husky-voiced daughter of an Alabama senator, who has become the most successful American actress in England, is deserting comedy for tragedy. She is going to play Camille, the famous emotional part created by Bernhardt in French and by Duse in Italian. This is Bankhead's first tragic role. Heretofore she has played light comedy in which there was at least one undressing scene. In fact, her aptitude in dressing and her husky voice are what brought her success over here, according to the critics.

THE 1930 NASH "400"

Built-in automatic radiator shutters mean SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE!

EVERY Nash "400" model is now equipped with built-in automatic radiator shutters—a feature of superior performance which Nash alone offers in all three Nash price groups. The opening and closing of Nash radiator shutters is automatic—nothing to push or pull—controlled by a thermostat—accurate and invariable. It keeps Nash motors operating at the most efficient engine temperature in any weather. And this is only one of many new features of these superior motor cars. Centralized chassis lubrication in every "400" model is another. Twin cowl ventilators and adjustable drivers' seats are others. All Twin-Ignition Eight and Six models have lifetime lubricated springs with flexible steel spring covers. And all Twin-Ignition Eight models are equipped with Duplate non-shatterable plate glass as standard equipment at no extra cost.

EUROPE DANCING CHAMPIONS WILL COMPETE IN U. S.

Invasions of America To Start Soon by Victors In Nice Contest

Berlin, Feb. 14.—Encouraged by spectacular successes at European dancing tournaments, Fraulein Gertrud Hepprich-Marcus and Herr Herbert Jenull, of Vienna, owners of the world championship honors won at Nice in 1928, are planning a visit to the United States early this year, to compete in American tournaments.

Fraulein Gertrud is the daughter of Prof. H. P. Marcus, who devoted years of scientific research to the history of the Hoover family. The history was completed last year and sent to Washington, where it is said to have won the approval of the president.

The Austro-German championship couple own numerous European titles and won a number of first prizes at tournaments held in Vienna, Berlin, Paris, and Nice.

At present the couple appears in a dancing sketch at the "Munich Deutsches Theatre," drawing large audiences and raising the enthusiasm of newspaper critics.

The couple will leave for the United States early this year, after finishing their engagement with the "Deutsches Theatre." Both are looking forward to tournaments in America with pleasure and confidence, hoping to win additional prizes and honors.

Miners To Attend National Meeting

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—More than 1,000 delegates, representing in the entire eastern coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky are expected to participate in the Second National convention of the National Miners Union scheduled to meet in Pittsburgh beginning April 1.

The convention, according to Pat Tooley, secretary-treasurer of the organization, will prepare to meet what he thinks will be an effort on the part of operators to cut miners' wages at the expiration of the anthracite agreement, Aug. 31.

Insurance Will Be Forced In Sweden

Stockholm, Feb. 14.—Compulsory insurance of all motor driven vehicles went into effect in Sweden this year and at once the automobile, registration figures dropped off. In Stockholm alone, the owners of 730 automobiles and 150 motorcycles did not renew their licenses. In ten out of 24 provincial districts the decrease amounts to 500 cars and 300 motorcycles, but authorities regard the drop as only temporary, many motorists preferring to wait till spring.

Louisville Resident Finds Relief From Rheumatism

Could Not Dress Herself For Pain — Owa-Ton-Na Overcomes 15 Years of Suffering

Those who suffer from rheumatism or its kindred ailments and know the discomfort and even torture which this affliction can bring about, will find in the story of Mrs. Rebecca Mooth, 703 Washington Ave., Louisville, Ohio, new hope since Mrs. Mooth has been completely relieved of the suffering from rheumatism. She says: "For the past 15 years I have been gradually going from bad to worse. Many times I was unable to get about due to the terrible pain."

body felt as though someone were pouring white hot metal over me. Sharp, dagger-like pains made me want to cry out. My health in general seemed to be run down, stomach did not act right; kidneys were not acting the way they should and I was troubled a great deal with constipation. All in all, I was pretty much run down."

"Even with the first bottle, I could see that Owa-Ton-Na acted differently than anything else I had ever taken. My stomach acted better, bowels began to function normally and my kidneys showed signs of improvement. Gradually I could tell that I was feeling better generally. The rheumatism started to leave me and in a short time the suffering was practically gone. Although it has been between two and three years since I got rid of my rheumatism I have had no trouble since. In fact, I feel like a new woman. Owa-Ton-Na has done wonderful things for me and you can readily understand why I am a booster for this fine old Indian Remedy. I have recommended it to many of my friends and they are having equally good results."

Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Fleming's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease Drug Stores.—Adv.

Towns No Longer Ask For Auto Roads

CARY, IND., Feb. 14.—Cities and towns of Indiana and other states no longer clamor for a main highway to be routed down Main Street, according to Colonel Arthur P. Melto, of Gary, a member of the Indiana highway commission.

"At the beginning, every town wanted the state road down the principal street, but the trend is changing, and the commission is being asked to go entirely around in some cases," Melton said.

"A through road in a main business street disturbs and inconveniences the local traffic probably as much as it benefits a town. Nowadays the best place for a through highway is a wide street not far from the business center."

No land can have two masters, either. If heech is boss, Government isn't.

MOVIES

"SUNNY SIDE UP"

At The State
Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are scoring one of the most sensational successes of their screen careers in "Sunny Side Up," Fox Movietone musical comedy, now playing at the State theater.

It is the first time either of the famous stars has appeared in a musical comedy role, and their performances in this DeSylva, Brown and Henderson production proves their adaptability to this style of entertainment.

Sharon Lynn, who made her musical debut in "Fox Follies," Marjorie White, famous Broadway comedienne, and Ed Brendel, famous Swedish comedian, also are winning applause for their performance in this musical comedy of the audience screen.

David Butler directed "Sunny Side Up" and Seymour Felix, Broadway's most famous dance director, staged the dances and song numbers.

"IS EVERYBODY HAPPY?"

At The Grand
"Is Everybody Happy?" is Ted Lewis' first motion picture. It is entertaining and lively with a story that suits the personality of this famous stage star.

It is a story that is not unlike Ted Lewis' real life story, telling of the struggles of a young musician who finally climbs to victory when he heads his own company in a vaudeville act that is a big hit.

In the picture Ted is an immigrant boy whose father was at one time the leader of the great symphony orchestra in Austria. The son, after striving for months to get a job as violinist in one of the fine classical orchestras, finally learns to play the saxophone and becomes a member of a jazz band and his father is heartbroken. There are many days of sorrow and tears for the boy and his mother until the father realizes that this is a new generation and that he cannot cling to his Old World ideas.

Honorary Degree For Dr. Ray Wilbur

PHILADELPHIA, FEB. 14.—Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, secretary of the Interior in the Hoover cabinet, will be among four recipients of honorary degrees from Temple university here on Founder's day today.

The conferring of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon Dr. Wilbur is contingent upon his presence at the Founder's day ceremonies. If pressure of business prevents his participation, the degree will be conferred at a later date.

The other recipients of Temple honors will be Dean Howard Rufus Omwake, of Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster, Pa., who will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Pedagogy; Dr. Percy R. Howe, retiring president of the American Dental association and director of the Forsyth Dental Infirmary, Boston, Mass., Doctor of Science; and Dr. Chevalier Jackson, noted bronchologist of this city and professor of bronchology in the Temple School of Medicine, Doctor of Laws.

Ships Collide In Fog-Bound Waters

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The United States shipping board freighter West Saginaw, whose home port is Portland, Ore., collided with the South Goodwins lightship in a dense fog in the English Channel today.

The West Saginaw, a steel vessel of 6,187 tons, rammed the lightship head-on, damaging the latter seriously. Extent of the damage done to the West Saginaw is not known.

ABOUT TOWN

City Hospital Notes
Mr. and Mrs. M. Kromer, of Salem, are the parents of a daughter, born at Salem City hospital. Mrs. Ruth Shontz of Columbiana, has entered the hospital for surgical treatment.

Mrs. Viola Leeder of Salem, is in the hospital for medical treatment. Rutheda Rudabaugh, of Leetonia, has been admitted for surgical treatment.

C. D. of A. Meeting

There was a good attendance at the business meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America held Thursday evening at the K. of C. hall, South Broadway. An invitation has been received by the Salem court to attend initiation and a banquet given Sunday by the Canton court at Canton.

In two weeks a social meeting will be held at the hall.

L. T. L. Meeting

Three stories of Lincoln's life were given at a meeting of the Loyal Temperance legion held Thursday afternoon at the Educational building, East Second st.

The time was spent singing and practicing yells and Valentines were exchanged. Preparations were made for a gold and silver medal contest to be held in about six weeks.

Painters' Demonstration

A master painters' demonstration will be held at Memorial hall, Warren, Friday, February 21, under the auspices of the Salem Builders Supply company.

All Salem painters, contractors and architects have been invited to attend the affair. A. J. Kent will be the speaker.

Amity Lodge

Amity lodge No. 124, I. O. O. F., will initiate a large class of candidates on Thursday evening, Feb. 20. A number of visitors from nearby towns are expected for the occasion. A regular session of the lodge was held last night at which plans for this event were made.

War Clouds Hover Over China Again

PEIPING, Feb. 14.—Warfare by northern militarists in China against the nationalist regime at Nanking appeared inevitable today.

President Chiang Kai-Shek, head of the nationalist government, has definitely refused the suggestion of general Yen-Hsi-Shan, northern military leader, that he retire from office. This is regarded as an acceptance of Yen's challenge.

Both sides are mobilizing for the impending conflict, which threatens to involve 2,000,000 soldiers.

Salem High Concludes Drive For Sixth County Title Tonight

McARTOR FLORISTS HAND GOLDEN EAGLE FIRST DEFEAT OF YEAR

Posies Continue Drive For Second Half Title With Decisive Victory

The sensational nine-game winning streak of the star Golden Eagle aggregation came to an abrupt and ignominious conclusion when the McArtor Florists continued their drive for second half championship honors and trounced the champs of the first half competition by a decisive 33-32 score in the thriller of the year at Memorial gymnasium Thursday night.

The victory marked the fourth straight of the second half schedule for the Posies who must win only one more to be assured of a tie for titular honors. Incidentally it placed them on the inside track for the title and leaves them facing as obstacles in their titular conquest, only the United Cigars and Grate Motors.

The latter two teams battled it out in the first game on last night's Class A program, the Tobies winning at 46-31 in a free-scoring debacle marked by loose defensive play of both teams. The Salem China climbed out of the cellar in the Class B circuit by trouncing the Fender Benders, former league leaders, 28-16 in the preliminary.

The clash between the Golden Eagle and Florists was the big event of the evening and furnished thrills galore for the small gathering of fans witnessing activities. Both teams battled on even terms in the first half but the Posies flashed a spectacular brand of basketball in the third and fourth periods to win by a wide margin.

Golden Eagles Play Malvern Here Tonight

Business College Girls Play Preliminary At Memorial Bldg.

Golden Eagle basketball champions of the first half in the city Class A league race, clash with the Malvern Independents in a feature case contest at the Memorial building gymnasium tonight.

Malvern boys have an outstanding record for the season and are expected to furnish hard going for the championship aggregation which is declared the city's leading Class A cage team by virtue of its undefeated record for the season in league competition.

The regular Golden Eagle lineup will appear in the game.

Salem Business College girls, one of the classiest sextets in the Salem district, opposes Malvern lassies in the preliminary at 7:30. The Salem maidens have amassed a fine record for the season, the team being composed of former high school court luminaries from Salem, Lisbon and other district schools.

Barnes Heads Girls
Melba Barnes, captain of the 1928-29 Salem High team, heads the S. B. C. sextet. Betty Moss, who with Barnes, won honors as a defensive star with the Red and Black will probably be at a second guard post together with Harns Roeder, another former Salem High star guard.

Lois Riley, Katharine Walton, Esther Lippert and Olga Rulener, the latter a former Lisbon High player, round out the squad. Walton, one of Salem High's outstanding scoring players last year, will probably start at center.

The games were arranged by Franklin Wells of the Salem Business college who is sponsoring the girls' team.

THE DAY In Sports

UNCERTAINTY OF SPORT
CONNIE MACK REWARDED

The uncertainty of sport is well illustrated in activities of all Salem athletic leagues and principally the basketball circuits such as are now entertaining and thrilling fairly large gatherings of fans at the Memorial building. The proof of the slogan about the uncertainty of athletics is easily found in just such games as that played between the McArtor Florists and Golden Eagle last night.

The Golden Eagle was heavy favorite to trim the Florists and despite the handicap of Les Older's absence, put up a stellar game in the first half. In the second half the Florists' team displayed an offensive attack such as has seldom been seen in city league activities, outscoring the champions 19-to-8.

Only three field goals were registered by the merchants in the last two periods, two by Bob Cope and one by Joe Kelly.

Les Older was unable to play with the losing aggregation due to illness. He has just recovered from a week's illness of tonsillitis.

Just how greatly athletics are appreciated by those familiar with advantages of sporting competitions is well exemplified in the award of $10,000 and a gold medal to Cornelius McGillicuddy, otherwise known as Connie Mack, the celebrated manager of the world championship Philadelphia Athletics.

The prize is the annual Edward Bok award to the person who accomplishes the most worthy deed for the city of Philadelphia. In past years it has been awarded to scientists, doctors and other classes, far different from the field of sport.

Wellsville High Team Expected To Furnish Battle For Stonemen

Salem High ends its campaign for sixth consecutive Columbiana county basketball championship, meeting Wellsville High passers in its most important county game of the season on the Orange and Black quintet's home hardwoods tonight.

Wellsville, a much stronger team on its own court than on a foreign gymnasium, is expected to furnish stiff opposition for the Stonemen and a hard battle is anticipated before the Red and Black will be able to base its claim to another title on an undefeated record for the 1929-30 season.

Salem High girls meet Wellsville's strong sextet in the preliminary tussle scheduled at 7:30. Wellsville is favored to trim the Red and Black representatives, having annexed a one-point decision over Coach Anne Oelschlaeger's team when the two opponents met here three weeks ago.

Boys Win First Game
The Stonemen, on the other hand, defeated Wellsville's male passers but experienced difficulty in annexing the verdict. The Red and Black rolled up a 16-4 margin in the first quarter while the strong Sharon, Pa. lassies play Salem High girls in the semifinal.

No games away from home conclude the season for Stone's varsity next week. A week from tonight the team treks to Alliance for a return game with George Wilcox-

21-29 lead at the half. Wellsville continued to play the Stonemen to a standstill in the third quarter which ended with the score tied at 25-25.

Stone's lads stepped out in the last quarter, held Wellsville scoreless and won themselves the decision by a 36-25 score.

Dayton Here Saturday
Dayton Kyser invades Salem High's home court here tomorrow night in the varsity, team's final home game of the season. Kyser is one of the toughest of the Dayton district's smaller schools and held the strong Toledo Woodward aggregation to a 22-15 score early in the season.

Kyser High competes favorably with the larger schools of its district and has a home-and-home series with Steel and Stivers every season. Fans have a classy program in store for them here tomorrow night, three games being on the bill. North Canton High's varsity meets Harold McCord's reserve squad in the first game while the strong Sharon, Pa. lassies play Salem High girls in the semifinal.

No games away from home conclude the season for Stone's varsity next week. A week from tonight the team treks to Alliance for a return game with George Wilcox-

Culbertson Starts Trip In Interior Of Darkest Africa; Finds Lack Of Big Game

A. B. CULBERTSON
[Editor's note: This is another of a series of articles by A. B. Culbertson, globe trotter, on his trip through Africa.]

Over in America, as most of us are aware, the average mental picture of far away Africa is that of an uninterrupted expanse of jungle—distinctly tropical in every phase—bright colored birds, strange outlandish beasts, poisonous reptiles and tangled masses of wildwood—great ferns and wide spreading banyan trees overhanging crocodile infested lagoons, crocodiles and perils ranging from cannibals to the weird unknown lurking around every bend and each felled breath laden with deadly malaria.

Such was the impression at least that I had from my youth and later years had not entirely dispelled and I am willing to confess, I had come to Africa with not a little misgiving lest I, too, in my advanced years might fall victim to one of these perils.

Africa, like every new and undeveloped country, has its dangers and all of these perils above mentioned, except the "spooks," perhaps are here, if one is looking for them.

But speaking generally, Africa is a delightful country to live in, can be made a white man's country and just as healthful and safe as at home.

Instead of a hot, moist tropical atmosphere, much of it, in fact most of it, except along the tropical seacoast and the larger rivers, such as the Congo and Zambesi and upper Nile, the entire continent lies high and dry (too dry some of it, like the Sahara desert) and will probably average 4000 ft. above sea level.

This makes for an almost temperate climate and is not uncomfortably warm except, as I say, along the seacoast and the lower altitude of equatorial Africa where precautions must be taken against the direct rays of the tropical sun and is unsuited to outdoor work for Europeans.

Bulawayo Up To Date

Bulawayo is quite an up-to-date town of something less than 7000 and is a junction point for the two railroads, one leading to the east coast and the other coming up from Capetown by way of Kimberley and Johannesburg.

This and the fact that it is the center of a large and coming grazing section is its excuse for being here and is about the farthest outpost of civilization going north until you enter the copper development of Northern Rhodesia and the Belgian Congo.

Near Bulawayo, high up in the Potopas hills, is the tomb of Cecil Rhodes, a spot set aside before his death, and which he named "World's view" for his own chosen burial place and "all those who deserve well of their country." A more desolate site for a burial could not be imagined. As far as the eye can reach in every direction nothing but huge boulders and jumbled rocks are visible, but truly a grand if desolate prospect indeed. Near here also are some ancient ruins indicating an earlier civilization.

The first thing that attracts the attention of the traveler upon entering Africa, and they seem to be everywhere, are the giant ant-hills, some of them fully 15 ft. high with 10 or more feet underground, which is where they live, the mound above being formed by the excavations. These are the homes of the termites (white ants).

Then the next thing that will arrest his attention is the giant can-delafra euphorbit tree, belonging to the cacti family and resembles those found in Mexico and our own southwest but instead of a shrub or bush as they are there, here they assume the proportions of a tree.

Being shaped like a giant candle, they give them the name. Next comes the Acacias and Mimosa, the former with wide spreading umbrella-like top and fern-like leaves (the Royal Parasians belongs to this family) and the latter with still finer fern-like leaves and the yellow sweet-smelling "bachelor button" shaped flowers. These three and the tall elephant grass features the landscape everywhere. Soon after leaving Bulawayo, the elephant grass increases with scattered groves of thorn trees ("wait-a-bit") which the giraffe so delight to feed upon, Acacias and Mimosa.

Big Game Country

This sure did begin to look like game country and we kept a sharp lookout first this side and then the other as the train dashes along at about 10 miles per hour. Up to this time we had observed no wild life, although we had already penetrated the dark continent for more than 1400 miles and perhaps I should have said I had seen no big animals for once I had a glimpse of a wild animal—just once—a mere cat, a little fellow looking much like those little prairie dogs that build their villages on our western plains, and I was getting discouraged—but now prospects began to brighten up.

The very suggestive name of elephant grass which my traveling companion here pointed out suggested it and we were certainly now quite out "in the blue." Not a house or a village in sight anywhere but although I scanned the landscape from morn till night, nary a wild thing did I see. True I had seen plenty of beautiful strange and freakish birds (Africa is full of bird life) but the lions and leopards and long-necked giraffes and other large animals which I had come so far to see were not in evidence.

Perhaps it was just an off day and tomorrow would be more lucky and retired for the night to my tired eyes a rest and the next morning we were nearing Victoria Falls, not to say we had not heard of any big game.

From all reports, the country I was passing through must be alive with them. I was being entertained and enlightened all the way up from Bulawayo by tales of lions that had been shot in broad daylight nearby—was told of hunters who had only recently been gored by elephants and at one place we passed was shown where a whole troupe of them had actually held up the same train I was then riding on only a few days before and to add color to the story, the brakeman here chipped in and confirmed the report "been tipped off perhaps" adding that one of the herd, a mere babe of a few days, got left on the other side when the troupe passed over and was captured and taken into the baggage car and fed on condensed milk until the passengers complained of the shortage of milk for their tea, when it had to be put off again.

One of these tales related to a Soft, wavy hair!

The modern sculptured bob do wonders to bring out your personality. But like other present-day modes of arranging the hair, they call attention to it. That's why it's so important nowadays to keep your hair soft, lustrous, abundant. The easiest and quickest way to give new lustre and color to hair, which has begun to look dull and lifeless, is with Danderine. And it makes the hair softer, easier to arrange, hold it in place.

Here's all you do. Each time you use your brush just put a little Danderine on it. It removes the oily film from your hair; brings out its natural color; gives it more gloss than brilliantine. Waves "set" with it stay in longer.

Danderine dissolves the crust of dandruff; puts the scalp in the pink of condition. It stops falling hair. A small bottle is enough to show its merit. Start on it tonight.

Indigestion

Immediate Relief!

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. The food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

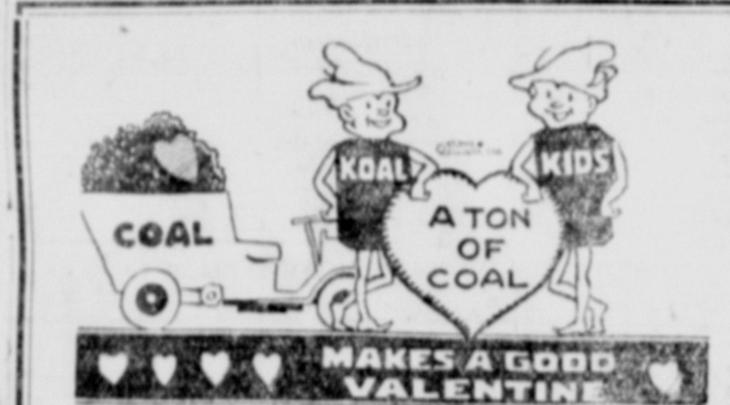

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 30 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate with no bad after-effects. Once you learn this fact, you will never deal with excess acid in the crude ways. Go learn—now—why this method is supreme.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 30 years in correcting excess acid; 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875. Adv.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

More like a filing cabinet than a clothes closet—that's what the modern woman's wardrobe looks like. Surely it was a business man, or a business woman who first created the new clothes closets. For they are patterned after the most methodical items in an office—files.

Files are compartments of a size and shape to hold papers that fit. Cards of a certain size are filed in drawers of equal size—so are various papers, drawings, blue-prints and so on. No office could operate conveniently if all kinds and sizes of documents were piled in one kind of big drawer.

Yet that's the way clothes used to be stored in the average home. A big roomy closet—if you were lucky—and clothes were hung or boxes placed with only one object in view—to keep things dustless.

The new clothes closets do a lot more. For one thing, they are built with convenience as an object. Tall, deep compartments in which dresses can be hung, and hung on a movable rod that swings out into the light for selection. Half-size, square compartments in which to hang blouses. Square closets, with two doors, of glass so that you can see the array of hats on their squat little stands. A dozen rows of small square drawers, each containing the individual items of woman's wear—gloves, belts, handkerchiefs, handbags, brassieres, bloomers, and so on. Only one kind of object in each drawer. And never do belts and gloves and handkerchiefs get into an even temporary mixup.

For shoes, there are several dainty devices. There's the shoe and stocking closet, with a little separate compartment for each pair of shoes and each pair of hose. Or, built in below the hat or blouse closet may be several rows of inclined shelves each with a rod in the middle. On these rest all the shoes in neat rows, and all are visible when the closet door is opened.

These closets can be built into any square space, if for a permanent home. Or, the apartment dweller can purchase ready-made closets with as many of as few compartments as desired. Some indeed are built on the sectional bookcase principle—so that you can buy one or two units at a time as needed.

Another common-sense idea, and oh, how much needed, is the heights of modern wardrobes. All doors and drawers are within arm's reach of the average woman. No one today deliberately builds a closet which is so high up that it needs a step-ladder for anyone but a giant to reach. That is, no thoughtful builder. Storage space should be within reach too—not merely any inaccessible spot in the house.

TRIED ALL KINDS OF LAXATIVES

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Gave Only Permanent Relief

As everybody knows, the market is flooded with cathartics, pills and patent compounds for the relief of constipation. At best, whatever results are obtained are temporary. Besides, there is the danger in certain drugs and the habit-forming menace.

Mr. P. M. Fisher, 517 Olive Street, Scranton, Pa., has something to say on this subject which will be interesting to all constipation sufferers. He says:

"For many years I suffered from constipation and used, for relief, all kinds of laxatives. After a few days' treatment, I would only find my condition the same as before and at times worse."

"Some time ago I started to use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly, once a day as directed. Since doing this, I have found that I do not need any other medicine to procure the desired result, and it keeps me in a very healthful condition."

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded.

In addition, it adds needed iron to the diet. You will like its delicious flavor. There are many delightful ways to eat it. Your grocer has Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Today's Pattern

A delightful adaptation of the Spring mode is the wool ensemble styled especially for the young girl. The model sketched today combines tweed for coat and skirt with jersey for the bodice. Stuffed banding trims the coat in tailored fashion and front pleats give freedom and grace to the skirt.

This little outfit is lovely in many shades—the tweed a mixture combining brown, tan, red and beige—the jersey in beige, blue and grey tweed, with grey jersey, black, white and red tweed with cream white jersey, etc. A narrow leather belt adds a chic touch.

Designed for sizes 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 8 requires 1 1/2 yards of tweed and 1 1/2 yards jersey.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

One rather delightful solution of the problem of storage for unneeded articles in the same room with the used closets proved a charming decoration as well. The old-fashioned closets were situated between two huge bedrooms on the second floor. They were merely tall compartments, deep, spacious, with square closets reaching from the top of the 7-foot closets to the ceiling two or three feet above. In these compartments were stored, semi-annually the items not needed for the ensuing season. And what a job to pack and unpack and tuck them away.

A modern decorator was called in. The excessively tall closets were cut down to six feet—high enough to accommodate any dresses or suits, and hat hat and accessory drawers were built in on another side. The top of the closet became the flooring of a railed balcony, reached by a tiny staircase at one side. On this were placed trunks and boxes containing unneeded baskets, fur coats, etc. Easy to reach, pack and unpack, and the balcony effect proved ornamental as well as useful.

Alaska Spruce To Be Paper Source

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—When the eastern spruce now used for paper has become exhausted, says the American Tree association, hemlock and Sitka spruce of Alaska will probably be called on to take its place. Alaska's forests will assume a new importance for forestiers because that enough spruce grows there to supply perpetually one-third of the raw material needed for paper making in the United States.

Private interests are buying timber for paper pulp from the two Alaskan National Forests.

A Real Indian Herb Tonic TAN-A-WA

Read the letter that Mrs. Mary Renfro, of 3623 South Delaware St. Anderson, Ind., has to say about Tan-A-Wa Tonic:

Dear Sirs:—Your TAN-A-WA tonic has done wonders for me. I had no appetite and was weak and rundown. I was bothered with constipation and had awful headaches. No medicine seemed to help me. A friend told me one day to go and get a bottle of Tan-A-Wa, and after the third dose I could see the difference and after I had taken five bottles I was a well woman. Tan-A-Wa sure was a blessing to me."

TAN-A-WA is good for rheumatism, constipation and a system builder.

Konjola Made Totally New Person of Me

Two Years Man Sought In Vain For Relief Found It
 In New Medicine

MR. PERRY THOMPSON

What hope and encouragement are to be found in the experience of Mr. Perry Thompson, 2207 Gest street, Cincinnati, who tells what Konjola did for him. He said: "For two years I tried every medicine indicated for my various ailments and the best I got in return was failure. Indigestion and liver trouble saturated my system with poisons and impurities. I had little appetite, and what scanty food I did digest scarcely enough to keep me going. I had not long to wait for relief. I started the Konjola treatment, for, just as I was told I could do, it went right to the heart of my trouble. As the poisons were swept from my system I found new health coming over me. Today I am enjoying splendid health, and am taking on weight, now that I can eat and digest what I eat. I verily endorse Konjola."
 Konjola is sold in Salem at all

Woman, 81, Breaks Prohibition Parole
 KANSAS CITY, Feb. 13.—Mrs.
 Bridget McCarthy, 81, is one of those who believe that a little "ripper" morning is an inalienable right.
 Having been convicted under the prohibition law, Mrs. McCarthy went to the industrial farm for women at Lansing for violation of parole.

Tiny Book Contains Lincoln's Addresses
 BOSTON, Feb. 13.—Most good things come in small packages.
 A tiny book is on display at the state house, containing Abraham Lincoln's four famous addresses, which, if mailed, would have to go without an address because there would be room enough barely for the stamp.
 The book is less than half an inch long and only half an inch thick. It contains 164 gilt-edged pages and is bound in red leather.

6 NEW DIVORCE CASES RECORDED

Sets Record for Day In Past Two Years Of Lisbon Court

LISBON, Feb. 14.—Out of 13 suits filed in common pleas court today, six were divorce actions, the latter being the largest number filed in one day within two years.

Leona Grimes, charges her husband, Fred Grimes of 309 Persimmon alley, East Liverpool, with gross neglect of duty and wilful absence for over a period of three years. The petition shows the couple were married June 20, 1922 and have one son.

Gladys Kyner, 659 East School st., Salem, in her divorce petition against Arthur Kyner, employed at the Crystal restaurant, Salem, charges the defendant with cruelty. They were married Jan. 22, 1921, and have two children.

In the divorce petition filed by Irene Ward, 442 West Eighth st., East Liverpool, against her husband Roscoe Ward, who resides with Goldie Coleman, Daisy Alley, East Liverpool, the plaintiff charges the defendant with extreme cruelty and wilful absence for over three years.

Beating Was Given
The petition has also set up that the defendant at one time gave the plaintiff "a terrible beating" and that as a result she had to crawl up and down stairs on her hands and knees. They were married March 1, 1919.

Benjamin F. McGrew, in the divorce petition filed against his wife Anna T. McGrew, 937 McDonald st., East Liverpool, charges his wife with gross neglect of duty and wilful absence. The petition, filed by Atty. G. Jay Clark shows the plaintiff has been paying $60 monthly for the support of his children. They were married Aug. 12, 1912 and have four children.

Although married less than two years, Ella T. Winsper, through her counsel L. M. Kyes, has filed a divorce action against her husband, Henry S. Winsper, of West Martin st., East Palestine. They were married March 21, 1936.

The petition sets up that the defendant has been intoxicated almost constantly since the marriage, and that he had drinking parties at his home. In addition to a decree the plaintiff also seeks an alimony order.

Alleged Remark Is Legal Action Cause

LISBON, Feb. 14.—Libbie Bunfill, in a petition filed in common pleas court asks $1,500 damages from Hattie Young for the alleged remark that the plaintiff was "filthy dirty, and fed her calves out of her milk buckets, and then milked in the same." The petition cites that the statement was uttered for the purpose of damaging the business of the plaintiff.

The defendant resides on the Lincoln Highway in St. Clair township near the Y. & O. sub-station.

Journal Entries
Judgment for $151.70 and costs has been entered in common pleas on a cognovit note in favor of the Firestone bank of Lisbon against Lebert Loudon and others.

On a similar action the Salem Chattel Mortgage company, has been given judgment for $177.50 and costs in a suit against Roy Scott and others.

Default judgment for $300 and costs due on note entered in common pleas in favor of the plaintiff in the suit filed by the Alliance First National bank against C. H. Salt.

In the case of Frank Patterson against Ethel N. Pettit and others, default judgment in favor of the plaintiff has been entered for $327.33 and costs.

Default judgment for $440.60 and costs has also been entered against the same defendant in the case filed by Alice Sanor.

In the action filed by Jeannette Clay against the Federal Life Insurance company of Chicago, Ill., a motion of the defendant to have the plaintiff secure the costs in the case has been sustained. This ac-curity has been ordered by the court to be given by March 8.

Seek Foreclosure
The Home Credit company, of Cleveland in an action filed against George and Ara Shulz, asks that leins be marshaled and that a foreclosure of mortgages proceed on lot 2998 in Basil Simons addition, East Liverpool. The plaintiff claims the defendant is owing $243.18.

Real Estate Transfers
Tamar G. Copeland to L. H. Copeland, 109 acres, section 2, Franklin township, $1.
Elizabeth M. Bence to Annie G. Martin, lot 5272, Andrews' addition, East Liverpool, $5.
David Lentz, administrator to Lilian I. Lentz, 1.62 acres, section 16, Salem township, $150.
Z. M. Cowan as receiver to Harry U. Richel, real estate and chattels

Famous Dairy company, Salem, $18,500.
Louis Gottardi and wife to Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company, one acre, section 18, Knox township, $150.
George W. Donaldson, executor to Mary A. Votaw, lot Fifth st., Salem, $1,650.
